

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Bills and resolutions are introduced, read the first time, and disposed of as follows:

By Senator Halstead: S. R. 197, a joint resolution commemorating the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and expressing the appreciation for the reception given the General Assembly by the city of Charlotte.

Upon motion of Senator Halstead, the rules are suspended and the resolution is placed upon its immediate readings.

Passes its second and third readings and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

By Senator Smith: S. R. 198, a joint resolution commemorating the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and expressing the appreciation for the reception given the General Assembly by the city of Charlotte.

Upon motion of Senator Smith, the rules are suspended and the resolution is placed upon its immediate readings.

Passes its second and third readings and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special messenger.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

A message is received from the House of Representatives, transmitting the following bills and resolutions, which are read the first time and disposed of as follows:

H. R. 223, a joint resolution authorizing the Governor of the State of North Carolina to appoint a Commission composed of five members to inquire into the advisability and feasibility of establishing an institution for the feeble-minded and mentally defective persons in western North Carolina, similar to the Caswell Training School at Kinston, N. C.

Referred to Committee on Judiciary No. 1.

H. B. 377, a bill to provide for the extension of the eight months school term in Farmville school district in Pitt County.

Referred to Committee on Education.

H. B. 394, a bill to incorporate the grounds in connection and surrounding Senter Primitive Baptist Church in Ashe County and providing for protection therefor.

Referred to Committee on Judiciary No. 2.

H. R. 428, a joint resolution to invite Honorable Ben E. Douglas, Mayor of the city of Charlotte, Honorable H. W. Harkey, Chairman of the County Board of Commissioners, and Honorable Clarence O. Kuester, Executive Vice-President of Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, as guests and to sit on the speaker's stand at the Joint Session of the General Assembly in Charlotte, North Carolina.